

Code of Conduct Policy

Policy Statement: The TCC ensures a safe and positive environment within Club programs, activities and events.

Policy Objectives: It is the objective of this policy to make individuals aware that there is an expectation, at all times, of appropriate behaviour consistent with Curling Canada's core values..

Policy Directives:

- Truro Curling Club supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and fairness.
- Any member failing to comply with the Code of Conduct Policy shall be referred to the Board according to By-Law 19.0.

Accountability: President, Board of Directors.

Last Revision: May 2022

